ABOUT JILL MELLOTT

Jill Mellott has established herself as an impactful guide and mentor for leaders navigating growth and transformation. As the People & Scalability Consultant at Bailor Group, she brings over two decades of experience to the table in people strategy and organizational development, particularly in high-change environments. Her career began in start-ups and expanded to mid-sized companies, where she has excelled in C-level and HR Executive roles, aiding leaders through rapid transformation.

Jill's expertise spans change management, business operations, HR strategy, and positive workplace cultures. Her passion for teaching shines through in her workshops, offered through organizations like Vistage Worldwide, focusing on communication, strategic planning, and managing change. Recognized in 2016 as one of Loudoun Business Journal's "40 Under 40," Jill is also a certified Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR). In every role she undertakes, Jill Mellott transforms challenges into opportunities, guiding leaders and organizations towards a horizon of growth and success.
